OUR SECOND WHOLESALE CLEARANCE SALE

IS now on in full force. This sale is conducted twice a year, right before our inventory week; and instead of taking merchandise in our books, which goes down for cost and oftentimes less, we think it's good business policy to count cash and give the customers as much as they care to buy at wholesale cost for two weeks. You know what values we give during sale times—so come as often as you can. The premium for this sale will be a handsome $35.00 Writing Desk. Sale closes July 24, 10 P. M.

ROOSEVELT AFTER A PACK OF MAN-EATING LIONS

(By Warrington Dawson, Staff Correspondent United Press.)

Niavasha, British East Africa, July 8.—Latest reports from the Fort Hall district, into which the Roosevelt party will plunge in August after leaving Nairobi, indicate that the Roosevelt party will encounter some of the gravest dangers it has yet met in the African hunt. An immense pack of man-eating lions, one of the largest reported by hunters in many years, has taken literal possession of the district, so terrorizing the natives and foreigners as to practically paralyze travel and industry. Up country runners and travelers on the Uganda Railroad report that the lions are more savage and aggressive than they have been in many years. Scores of natives have been killed by the pack during the past week, the lions, which are of the heavily maned variety, making raids on the native villages at night and after slaying such natives as are unprotected, retreating to the brush. A hunting party of two hundred natives has made several ineffectual attempts to stalk the beasts during the day, but they dare not attack the animals at night nor beat them from the brush owing to their ferocity.

A party of fifteen natives, bound from one village to another where this morning, were attacked by three lionesses and one huge lion. Before the panic-stricken men could turn to flee nine of them had been struck down by the animals. The other six made an attempt to escape by running but five of them were overtaken by the animals and slain one after another. The remaining native escaped by swimming a small stream.

The ferocity and great number of the lions along the road where this party was attacked have forced the government to close the highway as the protection of travelers through the district was found impossible. Owing to this reported abundance of game in the Fort Hall district, the Roosevelt party may change its plans and proceed to Fort Hall before the scheduled time.

SOMERVILLE WORKS DESTROYED BY FIRE

(Special from United Press.) Somerville, N. J., July 8.—The Somerville Works, owned by Benjamin Lisberger & Company of No. 738 East 14th street, New York city, and the Carbon Works, owned by Moses Baum, situated in East Somerville, were totally destroyed by fire last night. The loss is $125,000.

A bed bug in my bed would make me leave the best room I ever had. It would prove to me that ordinary cleanliness was lacking and carelessness in this respect would show carelessness in others, in other words that I had struck the wrong place and my pride and self-respect would suffer if I remained.

Cyrus' Presto Killer for bedbugs would have cleaned that bed, only 25c

THIEVES IN WEST END

Petty thieves are industriously at work in the western section of the city and scarcely one night passes without some bold theft being reported. In some places valuable vases and jardinières containing rare plants have been taken from porch stoops. The boldest act yet heard of was the carrying off of four new, large veranda rockers from a Fairfield avenue home, near Mountain Grove street, recently. A resident of that locality in speaking of the nightly depredations, said it was a common occurrence to find, on sitting down to dinner, the major portion of the meal missing from the pantry, where it had been set near a window to cool. The householders are up in arms and on the lookout for the bold thieves and it is safe to say there will be something doing if caught.

ROBERT AND HELEN TAFT AT SUMMER HOME

(Special from United Press.) Boston, July 8.—Robert and Helen Taft will arrive today at the summer home of the President at Beverly, coming from Lake Champlain, where their father they attended the festivities commemorating the lake's discovery. Mrs. Taft, who for some time has been in poor health, is slowly recovering and is expected soon to be in condition to take her place in the season's gaieties at the summer home.

POINTS OF INTEREST

G. W. Fairchild & Sons, the jewellers, offer for their regular Saturday special sale a fine assortment of sash pins, buckles, and hat pins at very special prices. They also call special attention to their repair department which is equipped with all facilities for turning out the finest work at moderate prices. No job is too small or large for this firm to handle and all work is guaranteed.

For the Children. Children's shoes are not one whit behind the shoes of their elders, in attractive combinations of leather, in color, and in general style. Men's shoes are showing all the novelties in summer footwear for children, in the best wearing, pre-fabricated leathers, and in white and colored canvas.

New Butter. Fresh, sweet, new, and rosy, our butter can't be beat, right out of the churn. Rich, creamy, and mild. If you like rare-bits get our old cheese made for that purpose. Native eggs that are the genuine article direct to us from the farms where they are produced. Boston coffee, the famous 1775 brand, the best coffee produced. Standard office, choice teas. The People's Daily, 130 State. Telephone 690. A. Robertson 589.

It's Bargain Time. The big July clearing sale at Meigs & Co.'s is announced for Saturday, July 10th, and the eyes of thousands turn toward the big bargain event which marks each July at the big store, and is the policy of Meigs & Co. to sell apparel of approved styles while the styles are in vogue, and in consequence of this fixed policy, the July clearing sale brings forward all broken lines of this season's clothing for men and boys, at prices which have made this July sale famous all over this section of the state. Few men will require urging to attend this sale, for almost everyone knows the tremendous values the sale always presents, and the wiser men will lose no time in getting their share of the bargains. If you want to get bargains in bargain time, you must go where the bargains are, and you must get there in time. Remember the sale opens on Saturday, July 10th, and be there in time.

THE THEATRES

POLI'S

Last performances of David Belasco's sensational "Zaza" are now on. Miss Fleming appearing in the famous "Pantaloone Gown" at each performance is giving the most successful performance of her entire career. Patrons of Poli's are assured that "Zaza" is one of the most artistic and finished productions of the stock season. The capacity houses all week have attested the general popularity of the play has found in this city. The performances to-day and to-morrow will close the splendid production.

At to-morrow's matinee a special stage reception will be held at the close of the performance at which the entire company will preside. Every lady attending will be presented with a handsome real carnation from Mr. Poli's own conservatories and will have an opportunity to greet personally each member of the cast.

Those coupons for the three-piece pongee suit to be presented to some lady patron at next Monday's matinee are going fast. No more will be issued after the night performance to-morrow. The suit which is on display in the windows of the Laborer Company at Cannon and Main streets is attracting much attention. The beautiful present will be awarded some lady patron at the initial performance of the great play "Leah Kleschna" Monday afternoon next.

FIREWORKS AT STEEPCCHASE

A fireworks display of unusual merit will be given at Steeplechase Island to-morrow night by the Connecticut Fireworks company, who promises Captain Boyton, the best exhibition ever seen in this city. The fireworks last Monday night were disappointing through the blundering of the company's workmen and to-morrow night an opportunity is to be given the company to redeem itself. The number of set pieces will be twice what they have been, and many novelties are to be provided. There will be special attractions at the island Sunday and next week the Hellkists, world famed fireworks, will appear. The bathing facilities at the island are complete and are being enjoyed by many every day. Special attention is given to women and children by Mrs. A. E. Payne, an expert swimmer and life saver, who is in charge.

AGED RESIDENT MISSING

Winsted, July 8.—William Pitcher, 84 years old, and of unusual mind, disappeared from the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. T. Niles, Sunday. He was last seen about 10 Sunday night on the outskirts of Norfolk and inquired the way to Pine Plains, N. Y., but when he left he went toward Colebrook. Another daughter, Mrs. W. H. Camp, of Norfolk, and her husband, who live in the vicinity of Colebrook but without success. The old man imagines that he is the owner of a pair of ponies and that he is searching for them. He has wandered away on several previous occasions, but heretofore has always been easily located. Despite his years and unsteady mind he is strong and rugged and capable of walking many miles in a day.

MARRIED. VAIL-PRICE.—In Newark, N. J., July 6, Miss Myrtle, daughter of Mr. Daniel O. Rice, and James Vail, both of Torrington.

DIED. LINTZNER.—In Shelton, July 6, Grace Van Buren, wife of Bernard Lintzner, aged 49 years. MEYERS.—In Shelton, July 6, Florence, widow of Addison Meyers, aged 51 years. SMITH.—In Torrington, July 6, Mrs. Diana Carter Smith, aged 82. BROWN.—In Norfolk, July 6, Hattie Baker, wife of Benjamin Crispy Brown, aged 44.

Taunting Him. It was housecleaning time, and Mr. Stubb was removing the dusty pictures from the walls. The frames slipped, the stepladder creaked ominously, and the perspiration rolled from Mr. Stubb's brow. In the humor to bite a nail in half, he turned and discovered Mrs. Stubb laughing. "That's it!" he roared as the stepladder awayed. "Laugh and show your gold teeth."

And still she laughed. "Do you think there is anything funny in my moving these pictures?" he spluttered in fiery tones. "No, indeed, John," said Mrs. Stubb soothingly; "but, you know, you look so funny it looks like a moving picture show."

Then Mr. Stubb swallowed a pint of dust and simply fumed.—Chicago News.

Wrong Diagnosis. A song with the title "There's a Sigh in the Heart" was sent by a young man to his sweetheart, but the paper fell into the hands of the girl's father, a very unsentimental physician, who exclaimed: "What wretched, unscientific stuff is this? Who ever heard of such a case?" He wrote on the outside: "Mistaken diagnosis; no sigh in the heart possible. Sighs relate almost entirely to the lungs and diaphragm!"

Lucky. Little Walter was whispering into the ear of his dog. "What are you saying to Rover, dear?" asked his mother. "Oh, I was just telling him how lucky he was," replied Walter, "cause he didn't have to have his neck washed and his hair combed or go to school."—Chicago News.

An Inflection. "Your tickets were complimentary, were they not?" "Well," replied the man who had seen a painfully amateur entertainment, "I thought they were until I saw the show."

Social Progress. "The Fillets are getting on rapidly, aren't they?" "Indeed, yes. They used to employ a washerwoman, but now they have a laundress."—Woman's Home Companion.

Hard on the Reporters. "I had a strange dream the other night," said the major. "What was it?" asked the young thing. "I went to heaven and as an old newspaper man was interested in their journal up there. It was a miserable thing—not a well written story in it—and I told St. Peter so." "What did he say?" "He said: 'It's not our fault. We never get any good reporters up here.'"

Not Many Store-Sales Are Uninfluenced by Store-Advertising!

The store-sales to-day that are uninfluenced, directly or indirectly, by store-advertising will not have amounted to ten per cent. of the total business of the day. By the direct influence of advertising in the sale of articles specifically advertised. By the indirect influence of advertising is meant the articles sold that are not specifically advertised, but are displayed to the customers who are drawn to the store BY THE ADVERTISED ARTICLES. In the latter case, as surely as in the first, the advertising must be credited with the sale.

Observant merchants know that this is true. They should gain courage from the knowledge to strengthen their advertising campaigns to the point of matching their store-keepers' plans.
